Tenn. Code Ann. § 2-1-116Copy Citation

Current through 2017 Regular Session (Chapter 493).

Tennessee Code Annotated Title 2 Elections Chapter 1 General Provisions2-1-116. Removal of campaign advertising.

- (a) After the conclusion of a primary, general, or special election, candidates in such election shall be responsible for the removal of any signs, posters, or placards advocating their candidacy, which have been placed on highway rights-of-way or other publicly owned property. The removal of such materials shall be accomplished within a reasonable period of time following the election, not to exceed three (3) weeks.
- (b) Any candidate in a primary election who will also be a candidate in a general or special election following that primary shall not be required to remove any signs advocating such candidate's candidacy until after the conclusion of the general or special election.
- (c) This section shall not be construed as being penal in nature. There shall be no punitive measures taken against a candidate or workers if all signs are not removed.
